WATSON AVERSE TO AMENDMENT

Tells Leaders Question is One For Each State to Settle

AN OPEN-AIR MEETING

Virginia Congressman Tells Women That They Have Higher Plane in World Than Politics

..Petersburg, Va., NoNv. 8—Congressman Walter A. Watson, of the Fourth Virginia District, met a committee representing the Virginia State Equal Suffrage League here Saturday at the request of the state organization to discuss his position upon the question.

The delegation was headed by Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, of Richmond, and Miss Elsie Hill, of Washington, D. C., representing the National Suffrage League.

The meeting was held in the City Council chamber and speeches were made by Mrs. Meredith, Miss Hill and Mrs. Percy Reed. At the conclusion of the addresses, Judge Watson thanked the committee for the information which he had gained, which he regarded as being very important.

Congressman Watson stated to the committee that he desired to be candid, and that while as a public man, charged with the responsibility of acting for others he would always keep his mind open to determine public questions in the right way, yet he deemed the question of suffrage one for each State to determine for itself and one which the Federal government should not take jurisdiction in, and that unless something should hereafter appear to chance his opinion, he did not favor the constitutional amendment.

In conclusion, he stated that there were disabilities under which women at present labored in our government that should be corrected, and that some of these might be corrected by giving woman the right of the ballot. He regarded women the mental and moral equal of man, and did not in any way fear the effect of woman suffrage upon the State, but did feel that in addition to her present cares to devolve the ballot upon her would be not so much conferring a privilege, but casting a burden and responsibility upon her, which he would prefer to see her spared. At the conclusion of Judge Watson's remarks addresses were made by several members of the committee from an automobile in Courthouse Aevnue, which were heard by a large crowd.

USE PRISONERS AS SHIELD

Petrograd, Nov. 8.—What purport to be evtracts fro mtwo letters found on the bodies of German soldiers on the field of battle have been published by the imperial commission of inquiry into the conduct of the war. The first reads:

The second reputed quotation follows:

"We don't know what to do with prisoners. Henceforth we shall drive every Russian who surrenders before the line of our fortifications to be shot."

The commission announces that the letters will be photographed and translated into the leading languages of the world, to be sent broadcast.

After a week filled with all kinds of rumors the Duma commission was autoritatively informed yesterday that Sergius Sazonoff would retain his post as Foreign Minister.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ELEANORA F. LYLES, who departed this life one year ago yesterday, November 7th.

One year has passed, dear mother,
Since we were forced to part
But time and place cannot efface
Your memory from our hearts.
And we often sit and wonder
At what you'd think and say
If you only knew the changes
That have happened since that sad day.

CARRINGTON TO PRESS CHARGES

Does Not Believe Medical Association Will Affirm Verdict

TO PRESS THE ISSUE

Allegation That Physicians Paid $27.50 Each for Publication of Their Cartoons in Richmond

Richmond, Nov. 8.— In a statement given out by him, Dr. Charles V. Carrington indicates that the charges of unprofessional conduct, preferred by him against Dr. George Ben Johnston, will not be permitted to rest with the action of the judicial council of the American Medical Association in giving an acquittal to Dr. Johnston, Dr. Carrington, questions the action of the council in giving out its findings, and says that he does not believe the association, when it meets in Detroit next year, "will stand for a whitewash." The charges are based on payment for the publication of a burlesque cartoon of Dr. Johnston, published in a Richmond newspaper.

It appears from correspondence given out in connection with the charges filed with the American Medical Association that the matter has been laid before the American College of Surgeons, and that the Medical Society of Virginia will be called upon to act also, Dr. Carrington says that charges against Dr. Johnston were filed with the Virginia organization six months before its recent meeting in Richmond by Dr. Henry Cuy Smith, of Crewe, Va., He quotes Dr. Smith as saying that "the same occult influences that caused the mysterious disappearance of the papers, cartoons and charges, which should have been tried at the meeting held in this city October 26 last, have been working in Chicago during the last few days."

The correspondence given out includes a statement from Dr. Stuart McGuire, used by Dr. Johston in his defense at Chicago, regarding the action of Dr. Smith, who filed charges against Dr. Johnston, Dr. McGuire and Dr. W. T. Oppenhimer before the Richmond Academy of Medicine and Surgery last spring, and later withdrew the representations. Dr. McGuire says that during the prohibition campaign of 1914 he had some rather "acrimonious" correspondence with Dr. Smith.

It appears from Dr. Smith's letter that he wrote to the Richmond newspaper which published the cartoon of the three surgeons and learned that it cost each $27.50 to have them printed.

There is a sharp conflict between statements made by Dr. Carrington and Dr. McGuire, as to their respective recollection of the details of a conversation, in which the charges by Dr. Smith before the Richmond academy were discussed. Dr, McGuire attributes to Dr. Carrington a statement to the effect that he did not wish to injure either he (McGuire) or Dr. Oppenheimer, but that "he (Carrington) did wish to use the incident at some future occasion to injure Dr. Johnston."

On the other hand, Dr. Carrington in a statement, says that he wished, as his friend, to help Dr. McGuire, out of an embarrassing situation, but "I had no such feeling toward Dr. Johnston, and did not care how badly he was hurt." Dr. Carrington further stated that at that time (last spring) he had no intention of preferring charges in this matter against Dr. Johnston before any society or of using it against him at any time.

Following the conversation with Dr. McGuire, Dr. Carrington and Dr. J. Shelton Horsley wrote to Dr. Smith, and the charges before the academy were withdrawn. In the course of his statement filed with the judicial council of the American Medical Association, Dr. Carrington says that his interest in seeing that the charges against Dr. McGuire were withdrawn was actuated by the fact that the latter was a candidate for election to the American College of Suregons, and he feared the airing of the matter might injure his chances of being chosen.

When asked for a statement on the findings of the judicial council in Chicago, Dr. Carrington said that the council was sitting merely for the purpose of taking testimony. He added:

"My first thought is that it looks like all advertising members of the profession had passed the word around that now was the time for 'al advertising men in the profession to stand together."

PENETRATE GERMAN LINES

Russians Claim Capture of Eight Thousand Teutons

London, Nov 8—Desperate fighting continues along the Russian front. Though the weather has turned wintry, it has not interfered with the Russian offensive. The Russians have extended their attack to the district west of Riga and thence to the south of Dvinsk. The Germans admit that in the region of Lake Sventen the Russians penetrated their lines. The Russians claim to have taken 8,000 prisoners by a thrust across the Stripa, while the Germans declare that they have captured 6,000.

An official dispatch from Petrograd says that on the Riga front the czar troops successfully attacked the Germans near the village of Olai, southwest of Riga. The enemy was obliged temporarily to evacuate this point.

"On the western shore of Lake Seventen," the dispatch continues "we captured the second line of German trenches, and took more than 300 soldiers and captured two machine guns and a searchlight. Subsequently the Germans made four counter attacks unsuccessfully.

"On the left bank of the Styr the enemy attacked us near the village of Medvegle. He was repulsed."

BULGARS SETTING TRAP FOR FRENCH

Division Trying to Envelop Allies in Valandovi Region

SERBS HOLDING PASS

Are Reulsing all Attacks at Babura and Piling Gorges Deep With Bulgarian Dead.

London, Nov. 8.—A division of 25,000 Bulgarians is attempting to envelop the French force in the Valandovi region, according to information from Bulgarian soldiers obtained by a Greek outpost in the Belasica Mountain, at the junction of the Greek, Servian and Bulgarian frontiers, says a Reuter dispatch from Saloniki. Heavy artillery and rifle fire has been heard at the outpost station.

A number of Bulgarian shells are reported to have fallen on the railway north of Guevgeli, but allied reinforcements are passing Guevgeli regularly, it is asserted. A Servian official is quoted as declaring the Serbs are holding firm at Babuna Pass, where all Bulgarian onslaughts have been repulsed. The pass is said to be piled deep with Bulgarian dead. At one point more than 1000 Bulgars were caught between a cross-fire and annihilated.

An important British contingent was landed Saturday at Saloniki where additional landing facilities have been granted the allies after negotiations with the Greek authorities.

Advices from Saloniki and other points show that much larger forces than were thought to be near the scene are being landed at Saloniki and are proceeding to points where it is believed they can do the most good. Troop trains are continually leaving Saloniki, but so much secrecy is being maintained that it is impossible to compute the number of men.

One report says that an Anglo-Italian army has landed at Valona (Avlona), on the Adriatic, with the purpose of crossing Albania.

The Russians are still concentrating in Bessarabia, to be prepared to make a descent on Bulgaria from the east.

Meanwhile, in Northen and Eastern Servia, and on the Montenegrin frontier, big battles are in progress. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing all along the line and to have reached the Morava River, which has been crossed at some points. In their advance they are picking up prisoners, guns and war material.

The Montenegrins, like their Servian allies, are fighting stubbornly in defense of their country, and report that they have repulsed an attempt by the Austrians to cross their border from Herzegovina, and captured four guns, a quantity of supplies and a few men. They also claim success over the Austrians in the Sanjak (Novapazar), where they captured four more field guns and several hundred men.

It would appear, therefore, that the Central Powers, who have obtained their initial objective, the opening of the road to Sofia and Constantinople, have a lot of fighting ahead of them if Servia is to be overwhelmed.

Bank Closes Door

St. Louis, Nov. 8—The Broad bank Bank, a neighborhood institution in the southern part of St. Louis, with deposits of approximately $800,000, did not open its doors today. The bank was taken in charge by a state examiner today.

The last official statement of the institution, issued September 2, gave the deposits at $814,000; capital, $100,000. The resources, according to the statement, included loans and discounts amounting to $691,000.

The bank was a member of the St. Louis Clearing House Association.

It was affiliated with the Bankers' Trust Company, now in a receiver's hands, and the suspension is said to be due loans on securities of speculative and development enterprises in which the Bankers' Trust Company was interested and promoted.

JERSEY JUSTICE.

Young Roosevelt Compelled to Leave $25 for Speeding.

Quentin Roosevelt, son of the former President, was late at the Princeton-Harvard football game Saturday. He and his chauffeur, Guy Brandow, were arrested shortly before 2 o'clock near North Bergen, N. J., for speeding. When Boulevard Policeman Schlemm haled the two before Sergt. Simmons, Roosevelt said: "I told Brandow to hit it up; I must get to that game quickly. "You'll have to put up $25 cash bail for appearance in court Monday," said Sergt. Simmons. "Here's my card," said Roosevelt, As the officer examined the pasteboard closely, Roosevelt added. "isn't my name good?" "Yes," replied the sergeant, "but not for bail."

After searching every pocket, and borrowing what the chauffeur had, Roosevelt finally laid $25 in bills, quarters, nickels and dimes down on the counter. As he left the police station he remarked:

"Gee, but Jersey justice is swift. Go a little slower, Brandow."

MARTIN WILL NOT OPPOSE KERN

Virginia Senator Will Not Be a Candidate for Floor Leader

NO TIME FOR SCHISMS

Believes it is Necessary Now That All Democratic Conflicts Should Be Avoided.

Washington, Nov. 8—Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, chairman of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, will not be a candidate for the Senate floor leadership in the coming Congress. He made this clear in his first public comment about the matter since the movement to restore him to that position was started.

The Virginian does not believe in party divisions and will not permit his name to be used to foment such divisions. In other words, he does not wish any contest take place between his friends and the friends of Senator Kern, of Indiana, or any other Senator.

When asked if his name would be presented to the majority caucus for the floor leadership, Senator Martin replied that it was not and never had been his purpose to oppose the re-election of Senator Kern. He said that this was a time when all conflicts and schisms should be avoided and there should be harmony and co-operation.

He added that the work of the Committee on Appropriations was very congenial to him, and he did not desire to take on himself and burdens and responsibilities that his duty to his party and the country did not require.

It seems certain that his friends will urge his elevation to the majority leadership if Senator Kern is made President pro tem of the Senate.

Regardless of the Senator's position however, it now seems certain that his friends will urge his elevation to the majority leadership, but will not do it unless Senator Kern is made president pro tem of the Senate. A movement to promote the Indianian to that position gained strength in the closing days of the last session, and in all probability will take definite form when the Senate caucus meets next month.

Senator Martin was the minorty leader of the Senate during the Sixty-second Congress, and was recognized by men of both parties as the ablest parliamentarian and most resourceful organizer the Democrats have had since the days of Arthur P. Gorman. Notwithstanding this, however, the caucus, at the beginning of the succeeding Congress, elected Senator Kern to the floor leadership. Senator Martin's name was before the caucus at the time, but was voluntarily withdrawn before the vote was taken.

Chief Galatian of the prosecutor's staff held the father pending an investigation.

MR. DANIELS' SECOND LOSS.

As was stated in Saturday's Gazette, for the second time since Josephus Daniels became Secretary of the Navy in the Wilson Cabinet, the plant of his newspaper, the News and Observer, at Raleigh, N. C., was destroyed early in the day in a fire which swept half a block, carrying a property loss estimated at $250,000.

Practically nothing was saved from the News and Observer.

The previous fire, nearly three years ago, was only a partial loss to the News and Observer. This one is complete. Only the front wall of the building is standing. Temporary offices of the News and Observer were established in the plant of the Raleigh Times, and the newspaper was issued as usual this morning.

In the early part of the present year Mr. Daniels paid a visit to Alexandria, On this occasion he delivered an interesting address at the Westminster Building. During his short stay in this city Mr. Daniels met a large number of Alexandrians who were greatly impressed with his personality and jovial nature as well as his inborn ability as a public man. He has the sympathy of all who made his acquaintance at that time in this second disaster which has overtaken him since he became Secretary of the Navy. Fortunately he is of the mould to rise superior to his difficulties, and while his loss is great in a little time he will be again on his feet playing his part in the publications of his state and nation.

We know how to sympathize with Mr. Daniels, as we have been compelled to pass through a similar trying experience. There are some persons now connected with the Gazette who remember that in the winter of 1862 only the front wall of the plant was standing when they reported for work. The building and all the contents had been destroyed by federal soldiers.

The Richmond Virginian in speaking of the destruction of Mr. Daniels' plant says:

"While fires may destroy building and machinery, nothing can destroy the great newspaper, which Josephus Daniels has created at Raleigh, a journal which has stood for the right of men and truth of God these many years."

PRESIDENT'S RECENT SPEECH.

Most newspapers, democratic and republican, agree that there has never been a saner or more reasonable declaration upon the subject of proper preparation for national defense than that of President Woodrow Wilson in his Manhattan Club speech in New York Thursday night, nor a more unnecessary and unreasonable utterance than the criticsm of this address by William Jennings Bryan. Newspapers that have not hesitated to defend Mr. Bryan against those who have aspersed his motives are almost unanimous in declaring that the Nebraskan has assumed an indefensible attitude.

The Richmond Virginia in commenting upon Mr. Bryan's utterance, in which he compares a reasonable state of defense with the pistoltoter, as one who goes about armed, with a chip on his shoulder and fighting talk at his tongue's end, ready to pull his gun on the slightest provocation, says this is veriable tomfoolery and continues.

We are not in the category of the gun-man when we keep in convenient reach in our homes a weapon that may be used to repel an invader who would murder our little ones and violate helpless womanhood. Under existing world conditions it would be the height of folly for us to carry Mr. Bryan's theories to their logical conclusion, destroy our weapons, scuttle our ships, and make military training a criminal offense.

America loves peace. It has no hate in its heart for any nation. It has help and kindly solicitude for all that need. Its purse is open to the suffering ones of the world. It hates war like it hates Satan himself. But it will support the President of the United States in every reasonable precaution that our fair land may not be invaded by alien enemy, or betrayed by the traitor within our gates, that our manhood be not slaughtered by well- equipped foes, and our cities bombarded and forced to contribute to the treasure chests of conquerors.

Impossible, you say! Well, look on Belgium. Turn your gaze on the ruin of French cities. Wander through Belgrade's devastated squares. Count the graves of women and children in England, victims of ruthless murder. Visit American homes made desolate by unlawful destruction of a great passenger ship on the high seas.

MODERN APPIAN WAY.

The road from Washington to Mt. Vernon was alive with automobiles yesterday. They were passing through this city all day and the weather being ideal, the participants greatly enjoyed the run. Many autos owned by Alexandrians were utilized, but the bulk of the machines were from Washington, Baltimore and other nearby places.

Since the city opened the road leading from Alfred street on Franklin to Patrick and south from the latter to Hunting creek bridge a fine roadway leads through and out of the city far into Fairfax county. Alfred street, the thoroughfare generally used by automobilists, is paved throughout in a modern manner, and after running through the city proper the machine strike a fine road to the bridge. After crossing that structure they pass over the roads recently constructed by the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax county, as far as Gum Spring, and within two miles of Mt. Vernon. In a short time that small stretch will have been finished, the government having awarded the contract for the work.

Many automobilists proceed as far as Pohick Church and other places in that vicinity.

During the civil war, when parts of the Army of the Potomac were encamped at what is now known as New Alexandria and at other places in that vicinity, the traffic over Hunting Creek bridge was immense, but for many subsequent years, apart from a few vehicles, passing at hourly intervals, there has been but little travel over that structure. It is not so now, however, but in fair weather, many vehicles, mostly automobiles, are coming and going close together.

EFFECT OF EMBARGO.

A writer in Mississippi calls attention to the fact that Germany who placed an embargo upon our Southern cotton, now is in dire need of that cotton. The writer is authority for the statement that a bale of cotton is fired with every discharge of one of the big sixteen-inch guns, which use, of course, smokeless powder, and he argues that the South cannot, in any one year, supply all the cotton needed for the manufacture of smokeless powder at home and abroad. The article referred to is printed in the Manufacturer's Record. Among other things the writer says:

We are told with much eloquence by the German press that if the Germans cannot have a full ration a day they will be satisfied with half a one, or one-eighth of a ration, if need be, and then fight on until her adversaries are conquered. This is very heroic, but neither heroics nor eloquence can alter facts, says the writer. A locomotive must have a plentiful supply of steam- coal, or it cannot make steam; and without steam it cannot do the work required of it.

We have observed of late that some of the pro-German papers at home and abroad are again soaring on the wings of prophecy and telling us upon what terms the Kaiser will grant peace and fixing the place where the Kaiser will eat his Christmas dinner. Last year it was Paris; this year it will be at Constantinople. They also, with noble eloquence, say that Germany is unconquerable, and that she will endure, and by wearing out her opponents force them to accept peace on her terms. Last year these papers were quite busy carving up France and dismembering the British Empire, and this year they say Germany will retain what she has conquered and accept a big war indemnity.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Yesterday has been another bloody Sunday in Juarez. There were 50 executions of Villa soldiers at sunrise.

Berlin already has had a heavy fall of snow. It is the earliest touch of winter weather in 200 years. Women swept the snow from the streets.

The Japanese steamer Yasakuni Maru, 5,118 tons gross, was sunk by a German submarine near Gibraltar Wednesday. The captain and crew reached shore safely.

Personal liberty advocates yesterday mustered 69,480 marchers in the greatest parade ever held in Chicago, as their answer to Mayor Thompson's famous Sunday saloon closing order.

Eben Storer, one of the best-known men in the printing trade in New York, committed suicide yesterday evening at his home, Glen Cove, L. I., He had been despondent because of his slow recovery from an operation for appendicitis, performed in September.

The great poisonous gas factory of the Germans which has been supplying the Teutons in the north of France was attacked Friday by a squadron of French aviators and destroyed. The manager and 142 workmen are said to have been suffocated by fumes resulting from explosions.

Athens dispatches announce that the progress of the Bulgarian forces is alarming. The Sofia newspapers are using threatening language toward Greece, enjoining her to expel the allies, Otherwise, they say, the victorieous Bulgarian army will eject them by an invasion of Greek territory.

People returning from church services in Edwardsville, a suburb of Wilkesbarre, formed the greater part of a mob of 3,000 that stoned Wilkesbarre Railway Company cars last night. After a series of riotous scenes all cars were withdrawn from the five lines operated.

It is reported that the German government is attempting to make arrangements for the distribution of food before the Reichstag convenes on November 30. Because of the abnormal prices for butter and eggs, there are daily riots in South Germany. The police are helpless before the mobs. The people contend that the government systematically minimized the British blockade and declared it could not hold. Home Secretary Delbruck is said to be responsible for this.

The value of the poultry and eggs production in Texas this year, will reach approximately $25,000,000. It is estimated that about $1,225,000 worth of dressed turkeys will be shipped to Northern markets in the next two months. The prices of Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys will be lower than for several years, from the present outlook. The turkey crop of the country is not only unusually large, but the demand for the dressed fowls in European countries is now cut off, as is also much of the ocean steamship trade.

"I am so sorry President Wilson did not meet me at the train," whispered Mrs. Catherine Martin, of Berlin Heights, O., to Policeman Ford yesterday morning in Washington. "I have been corresponding with the President on matrimonial affairs for some time past and sent word to him to meet me at the station to-day when I arrived." When Policeman Ford recovered from the shock of Mrs. Martin's confidences, he placed her under arrest and sent her to the Washington Asylum for observation as to her sanity.

Nine hundred Irishmen desirous of leaving England to escape military service were booked to sail on the Saxonia for Liverpool Saturday. The firemen of the Cunarder who are Irish, refused to put to sea if the 900 of military age were allowed to sail. Thereupon the Cunard Line refused to embark the Irishmen and announced that in the future it will not take any subjects who are fit to fight. The decision of the line was received with enthusiasm in Liverpool where the sailing of these Irishmen had aroused a great protest. The rejected men had a livily time at the docks. Several were assaulted and others were compelled to wear white feathers.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Fire early yesterday morning for half an hour threatened the first Baptist Church of Danville, when a stable containing nine horses and an automobile garage, were consumed.

Miss Mattie Maughs, aged sixteen years, died last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nettie S. Maughs, from the effects of burns sustained while in the act of starting a fire in a heater with gasoline.

Hopewell, the Virginia city which sprang from one house to 30,000 inhabitants within a few month, is said to have become as quiet as other communities in the State. Its early lawlessness has almost disappeared.

Commonwealth's Attorney T. C. Wilson, of Clifton Forge, has obtained a confession from "Jim" Henry, a negro, that he killed Neil Watson, the Chesapeake and Ohio train watchman, who was found dead near a freight car that had been robbed.

Less than an hour after he had been struck by an automobile driven by Clarence Rawles, a white chauffeur, on Colley Avenue, near Raleigh C. Mercer Baylor, eighteen-year-old son of C. M. Baylor, of Norfolk, died early Saturday afternoon from a fracture of the skull near the base of the brain. Rawles, the chauffeur, was arrested.

Dr. G. J. Williams, of Newport News sustained two broken ribs and several severe bruises about 7 o'clock Saturday evening, when his automobile turned turtle. The physician attempted to go around a wagon which was going in the same direction as the machine. The steering gear either refused to work or broke and the automobile swerved sharply to one side, turning upside down.

Application will be made to Judge Jesse F. West, of the Circuit Court of Prince George county, on December 6, to grant articles of incorporation to the town of Hopewell, adjoining the reservation of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company. The petition is signed by twenty qualified voters, who live within the territory, all of them being Prince George county men who have established a residence at Hopewell.

Vanderbilt has had its long-desired test—and has been found wanting. Its highly touted offensive prowess was shattered by the sturdy Virginia forwards Saturday afternoon at Charlottesville, while its unknown defensive ability was found to be nil by the Virginia backs, who turned the predicted gridiron classic into a rout. The largest crowd that ever packed the big concrete stadium on Lambert Field saw the Commodores, premier scoring machine of the nation, humbled by the Orange and Blue 35 to 10. The most optimistic Virginia supporter had not anticipated it.

A TWICE TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of an Alexandria women is confirmed after 4 years.

Mrs. Martha Byrne, 209 Wilkes St., Alexandria, says: "I suffered severely from backaches and pains through out my body. My kidneys were badly disordered and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I was steadily running down in health, when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box greatly benefited me, so I kept on using them and I now enjoy good health."

The above statement was given in November 1910 and on April 9, 1915, Mrs. Byrne said: "I very seldom have any trouble with my kidneys. Just as soon as I notice the least disorder, I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pill and they never fail to give quick results. Doan's Kidney Pills are responsible for my present good health."

NOTE TO GREAT BRITAIN

United States Will Not Recognize as Legal Blockade of Germany or Austro-Hungary.

The long-awaited note to Great Britain on British practices interfering with American trade was made public last night. In it the United States serves notice on Great Britain:

1. That it will not recognize as legal and effective the British blockade of Germany and Austro-Hungary.

2. That it "cannot submit" to the curtailment of its neutral rights by measures which are admittedly retaliatory and therefore illegal.

3. That it "must insist" that the relations between it and the British government be governed not by a policy of expediency, but by established rules of international law.

4. That it unhesitatingly assumes the task of championing the integrity of neutral rights and will devote its energy to that end.

The note as a whole is a vigorous denunication of the British government for the illegality of its measures in regard to neutral shipping. "Without justification," "ineffective" "illegal," "indefensible," and "in violation of the laws of nations" are some of this government's characterizations of the British practices.

KILLED IN INITIATION.

Pennsylvania Youth's Neck is Broken When He is Tossed In Blanket

Du Bois, Pa., Nov. 8.— Thomas Leon Reed, 21 years old, is dead at his home at Olanta, as a result of an accident suffered while being initiated into the mysteries of a secret order.

Reed, a strapping six-footer, was the last of nine candidates to be initiated into a side degree of the order, and when it came his time to take the degree was required to walk, blindfolded, on a narrow plank, at the end of which he was required to jump off into a blanket held by members of the order, after which he was tossed into the air sveral times.

In falling into the blanket, young Reed, after being tossed the third time, struck on his head and broke his neck. He was taken at once to his home, where he died two days later.

A coroner's jury gave a verdict of accidental death and exonerated the members of the order.

ATTACK PRESIDENT

Berlin Newspaper Criticises Speech In New York Last Week.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—The Morgen Post attacks President Wilson sharply for his remarks in his speech in New York on Thursday concerning persons in the United States who are partisans of other causes than that of America and have forgotten that their chief allegiance is to the American government. The Post says that the election of Tuesday "brought a heavy moral defeat" for the President, and that his speech was in retaliation for "this German-American punishment" and was obviously directed against German-Americans.

The form of the President's speech, the newspaper asserts, was such as had never been before heard from an American President, and such as would never have been considered possible from the head of the country.

The Morgan Post asserts that, in view of "the pronounced hatred of Germany prevailing in America," the speech can lead to "the worst consequences." It declares President Wilson expressed "his aversion for and low estimate of German-Americans" shortly after the outbreak of the war in different utterances, and that the President "is certainly unfitted to play a leading role in the discussions of the peace question."

NO LOOKING BACK

New Evidence Constantly Being Published

Since the long succession of Alexandria reports were first published in the local press there has been no looking back. Alexandria evidence continues to pour in, and —better still—those whose reports were first published many years ago, verify all they said in a most hearty and unmistakable way. Read the experience of Mrs. Maud Simpson, 211 Wilkes St., she says: "I can back every word of my former statement given in 1912, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I never found anything that gave me so much relief whenever I have had that tired feeling across my kidneys. I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have an opportunity, for I know they can't be beat."

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.
